Proof of Death
(For Life Policies Only)
Submitted To
American Republic Insurance Company

The furnishing of this form and investigation of the claim is not to be construed as an admission of the validity of any claim or as a waiver of any condition of the policy by the Company.

Instructions for Furnishing Proof of Death

1. Complete Parts I, II and IV. If the policy has been in force less than two years or has lapsed within two years from the date of death, you must also complete Part III.

2. Enclose a certified copy of the Insured’s Certificate of Death that includes the cause and manner of death.

3. If any primary beneficiary has died before the Insured, enclose proof of the beneficiary’s death: a copy of the beneficiary’s death certificate or obituary or a copy of the Insured’s obituary if it mentions the beneficiary predeceased the Insured. In such case, the claim should be made by the other beneficiary(ies), or if there are none, by the duly appointed Personal Representative (Executor or Administrator) of the Insured’s estate.

4. If the claim is made on behalf of the Insured’s estate, enclose a certified copy of the Letters of Administration or the Letters Testamentary, whichever is applicable, and a completed W-9 for the estate. If the Insured’s estate will not be probated and the Insured’s state of residence permits payment by affidavit in small estates, enclose the completed affidavit. (The affidavit form can be requested from our office.)

5. If a beneficiary is a minor or is legally incompetent, enclose certified copies of legal documents authorizing you to collect funds on behalf of the beneficiary.

6. If there is a claim for accidental death benefits, furnishing a newspaper account, police report, or coroner’s verdict can facilitate the claim.

Part 1: Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN):

Enter your TIN on the appropriate line. The TIN provided must match the name given on the “Name” line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). For a resident alien who is not eligible to get a SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). If you are a sole proprietor and you have an employer identification number (EIN), you may enter either your SSN or your EIN, but the IRS prefers that you use your SSN. If you are a single member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner’s SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN).

Part 2: Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person - defined in the instructions.
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certification required to avoid backup withholding.
